

Assignment3-1.pdf review:

The content of the write up was clear. The person has sound understanding of all types of consistency levels mentioned in the article. The writeup covered all types of consistency levels with good explanation and examples in the same order how it was mentioned on website. It was well organized, and the language of understanding used is easy and no complex words are used to describe the syntax of consistency. The writeup could be well understood by a person not having any understanding about different consistency levels. The paragraphs are well organized. The flow of understanding is maintained and there are no sudden jumps. The person has used simple words and examples to explain the concepts. The writeup is written keeping in mind all the guidelines mentioned in the assignment document. No direct copy of anything from website is found. There are zero grammatical errors.

Total points: 7/7

Abhiram Gulanikar DDS Assignment 3.pdf review:

The concepts were clearly written. The writeup shows the person has good understanding of the consistency levels. The consistency levels were explained with good explanation through examples. The order mentioned on the website was followed. The ideas were put forward precisely. The language used was easy to understand. The writeup is well articulated. Hence, any person with no understanding of about the different consistency levels can understand it well. There are no sudden jumps from one topic to other. The organization of the paragraph is good, and the flow is maintained. There is no beating around the bushes. The person has taken care of all the guidelines mentioned in the assignment document. The writeup has no grammatical errors. There is no copying of anything from the internet.

Total points: 7/7